

HISTORIA ET IUS – NUMBER 2

- 1) Julien Boudon, A legal doctrine for the benefit of the Republic? The figure of Adhémar Esmein
- 2) Alessandra Bassani, The requirements of the witness de auditu alieno according to the doctrine of thirteenth century
- 3) Alessia Legnani Annichini, The paradigm of local justice in a territory of Emilia region: the constitutions of San Felice sul Panaro in 1464
- 4) Giuseppe Mazzanti, After the Tridentino. A doctrinal question about supposed marriage
- 5) Sara Parini Vincenti, The transaction according to the ius hollandicum
- 6) Alessandro Dani, The comunal constitutions in the Ecclesiastic State of Ancient Regime: some annotation and consideration
- 7) Rosamaria Alibrandi, Ut sepulta surgat veritas. Giovan Filippo Ingrassia and Fortunato Fedeli about the new way of legal medicine
- 8) Gianni Buganza, the tromeccanica after Galileo, justice administration and international debate (1727-1801)
- 9) Raffaele Ruggiero, Textual critics and juridical history: a review of ecdotic experiences
- 10) Stefania T. Salvi, Two generations of notaries in the Milan of late Ancien Régime: Giuseppe e Vincenzo D'Adda
- 11) Giordano Ferri, The theoretical construction of the arbitrator in modern age
- 12) Carlotta Latini, Criminal soldiers, legal science and criminal military processes in unified Italy
- 13) Massimo Nardoza, Civil codification and legal culture in Italy. Notes for a research.
- 14) Irene Stolzi, The totalitarian fascism: the contribution of the idealistic reflection
- 15) Natalino Irti, Historicism and juridical nihilism under a speech by Ugo Foscolo
- 16) Nicola Picardi, Processual and social reforms by Franz Klein
- 17) Jacques Bouineau, Medieval and modern Island constitutes a republic?
- 18) Francesco Berti, Processual guarantees and human rights according to the penalty doctrine by Gaetano Filangieri
- 19) Angela Santangelo Cordani, Venus against nature. The crimen sodomiae between canon law and civil legislations (about Miguel Ángel Chamocho Cantudo, Sodomia. El crimen y pecado contra natura o historia de una intolerancia)
- 20) Marco Fioravanti, Law and slavery in modern age (about Gabriele Turi, Schiavi in un mondo libero. Storia dell'emancipazione dall'età moderna a oggi)
- 21) Massimo Nardoza, History of law, historiography and historicism in Emilio Betti (about Le idee fanno la loro strada. La Teoria generale dell'interpretazione di Emilio Betti cinquant'anni dopo, a cura di Giuliano Crifò)