

HISTORIA ET IUS – NUMBER 5

- 1) Jacques Bouineau, About the notion of res publica
- 2) Roberto Iozzo, The approbatio: for a research on the institute in the pontifical domains
- 3) Francesco D'Urso, The possible Church. The balance between pope and council in the corporate perspective of some canonists of the fifteenth century
- 4) Cecilia Pedrazza Gorlero, De principatu et imperio foeminarum? A singular example of "filoginia" in the De Republica (1596) by Pierre Grégoire
- 5) Saverio Gentile, The application of the Code de commerce in Calabria region and the emergence of an interesting unpublished piece related to the Murat Commission of 1814
- 6) Alfonso Alibrandi, The system of sources in the Code civil du Bas-Canada
- 7) Filippo Rossi, Brief notes on public employees and disciplinary sanctions during the Restoration. Regulatory experience
- 8) Emanuela Fugazza, Ercole Vidari internationalist. From the Pavia teaching to the collaboration with the Institut de droit international
- 9) Marzia Lucchesi, A large science lab or a school for the profession? The Italian university in the contemporary time by Pietro Vaccari (1927)
- 10) Roberto Palenca Tabulazzi, The transformations of the organization of the Government from the statutory period to the republican experience
- 11) Giovanni Diurni, Fides and trust in the current debate
- 12) Viviana Persi Pivetti, Public attics. Comparative approach to regulations in Rome and Paris between the 17th and 18th centuries
- 13) Alfredo Aurigemma, Honore et guerra in Renaissance Italy. The opinion of Giovanni Iacopo Leonardi in the dispute between the Prince d'Albret and the Marquis of Vasto
- 14) Mario Fabrizio De Pasquale, From the province to the Capital. The Marquis Francescantonio Grimaldi, a Calabrian jurist
- 15) Giordano Ferri, Towards the modern civil process (about Knut Wolfgang Nörr, Verso il processo civile moderno. Dal diritto naturale al Novecento, traduzione di C. Foti, Roma, Aracne "Storia del diritto e delle Istituzioni: Studi", 2013)
- 16) Giulia Maria Labriola, Pellegrino Rossi: The constitution as a "political work" (about P. Rossi, Cours de droit constitutionnel, introduction by Julien Boudon, Paris, Dalloz, 2012)
- 17) Antonio Grilli, Legal equality or corporate privilege? The events of a "strange" justice (about Cristina Ciancio, Mercanti in toga. I tribunali di commercio nel Regno d'Italia (1861-1888), Bologna, Pàtron, 2012)
- 18) Marco Fioravanti, Right of the city and popular action (about Paolo Maddalena, Il territorio bene comune degli Italiani. Proprietà collettiva, proprietà privata e interesse pubblico, Introduzione di Salvatore Settis, Roma, Donzelli, 2014)