

HISTORIA ET IUS – NUMBER 7

- 1) Luigi Capogrossi Colognesi and Antonio Masi, Memory of Edoardo Volterra
- 2) Marco Urbano Sperandio, Costantino “Universal bishop”
- 3) Paolo Angelini, Annotations on the Greek archetype of the Rotary edict
- 4) Angela Santangelo Cordani, “The Santo Officio way of proceeding against witches”. Eliseo Masini’s Holy Arsenal and the dawn of downfall of witch hunt
- 5) Andreas Rahmatian, The Influence of Lord Kames (Henry Home) on some of the Founders of the United States
- 6) Ulrike Müssig, The natural judge before the French Revolution: estate opposition against missionary justice of the crown
- 7) Benjamín M. Rodríguez, The consulate in Buenos Aires and the ancient Regime normative orders (1794-1821): religion, morality and law
- 8) Federico Sciarra, The Tribunaux de famille during the revolution; an experience of compulsory arbitration
- 9) Alberto Torini, The beginning of abolitionist campaign: “The journal for abolition of the death penalty” and the late nineteenth century criminal reform debate
- 10) Giordano Ferri, Collective property and civic use in twentieth century historical-legal perspective. An appendix to Carlo Calisse’s speech - Senate of Kingdom, 18 May 1927
- 11) Vida Azimi, Stendhal: candidate for a prefecture
- 12) Sonia Abis, The furor melancholicus in modern legal culture. Comments and research hypothesis
- 13) Rosamaria Alibrandi, When form is substance. The ceremonies in Spanish Sicily. (about Loris De Nardi, Oltre il cerimoniale dei viceré. Le dinamiche istituzionali nella Sicilia barocca, Padova, Libreriauniversitaria.it Edizioni, 2014)
- 14) Francesco D’Urso, The conflict as iudicium in Francesco Suárez’s de bello doctrine. (about Francisco Suárez, Sulla guerra. Testo originale a fronte a cura e con un saggio di Aldo Andrea Cassi, Macerata 2014)
- 15) Elisabetta Fiocchi Malaspina, Global challenges for law history: perspectives and new horizons (about Thomas Duve (ed.), Entanglements in Legal History: Conceptual Approaches, Global Perspectives on Legal History 1, Max Planck Institute for European Legal History, Open Access Publication, Frankfurt am Main 2014)
- 16) Marvin Messinetti, Taranto and citizens’ privileges between middle ages and modern age (about Roberto Caprara, Francesco Nocco, Michele Pepe e Ornella Valeria Sapio, Libro Rosso di Taranto. Codice Architiano (1330-1604), vol. n. XXXVIII della Collana “Codice Diplomatico Pugliese”, Bari, Società di Storia Patria per la Puglia, 2014)
- 17) Luigi Trisolino, On constitutionalism from its dawn to the borders of the so-called new-constitutionalism (about Salvatore Prisco, Costituzione, diritti umani, forma di governo. Frammenti di un itinerario di studio tra storia e prospettive, Torino, Giappichelli, 2014)
- 18) Dario Di Cecca, The “Good death” (about Marco Cavina, Andarsene al momento giusto. Culture dell’eutanasia nella storia europea, Bologna, Il Mulino, 2015)

19) Aniceto Masferrer, Antonio Pérez Martín. Notes to the his contribution to the Spanish and European legal historiography